TTS production guide

No audio MP3 is included. Create audio from the files under TTS/Mock_01 to Mock_10.

N = narrator; A and B = different conversation voices. Use natural English voices and maintain each role within a Part. A monologue uses a single voice. Do not add background music.

Clips/*.txt contains speech only. Create each clip with the role in its filename and keep its filename, changing .txt to .mp3. Repeated timeline references reuse the same audio.

Timeline.csv and Timeline.json contain playback order and silence. A PAUSE row is silence only; never read it aloud. Production_Script.txt is for the producer and includes role labels and pauses. Speech_Only.txt omits labels but does not create pauses automatically.

Both hearings are fully written into the timeline. Parts 1 and 4 repeat each short recording. Parts 2, 3 and 5 repeat the whole monologue or conversation. Do not repeat a finished Part a third time.

Suggested starting pace: about 135 words per minute, with natural intonation. Timelines include checking time and a final six-minute transfer period for paper practice. Durations are estimates, not measured MP3 lengths. Listen through each final track against the matching question paper before classroom use. Adjust checking silence if the selected voices change total duration.

Read surname letters individually. Listen carefully to times, prices and similar numbers. Do not read question options aloud unless they appear in the script.

Use only these scripts with this edition of the tests.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

Your teacher will be Ms Bennett. That is B, E, N, N, E, T, T. She has worked with young people for several years. You do not need to bring clay or paint because we provide both. Please bring an apron, though, as your clothes may get dirty. An old one is fine. The usual price is fifteen pounds, but your first lesson is twelve pounds. That includes the materials. Come to room four, not the large room beside the entrance. There will be signs from the stairs. We start at ten, but please arrive a little early to wash your hands and choose a seat. You can leave your bags on the shelves. At the end we will explain when your finished work can be collected.

Mock 01 | Listening Part 3

N: Part three. You will hear two friends talking about a beginner's map-reading day. Read questions eleven to fifteen now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: You went on the map-reading day, Iris. Was it a school activity?

B: No, my cousin found it online. I joined because I wanted to learn something useful before our family walking holiday.

A: Did you need lots of equipment?

B: They lent us a compass and a map. I only had to bring comfortable shoes and lunch. We began in the village hall, not outside as I expected.

A: What did you do there?

B: First we learnt what the signs on the map meant. Then we practised finding our direction in a field. The forest walk came after lunch.

A: Was that difficult?

B: We took a wrong path once. Our teacher did not tell us the answer immediately. She asked us to compare the path with the map, and we found the mistake ourselves. That was the most useful part.

A: Would you do another day?

B: Yes, but I need more practice first. The next course is about longer walks. I am going to use the simple map near home with Dad before booking it.

A: Could I join you?

B: Of course, Jack. Come next weekend and we can practise together.

A: Good. Is Leo still taking photographs?

B: No, Leo will play music with the small band. We already have enough cameras.

A: Then who will take pictures?

B: Maya. The art teacher has lent Maya a camera, and there is a list of moments to record.

A: What about Noah? We need someone at the entrance.

B: Noah is collecting tickets there. Another group will welcome visitors and show them around, so those are separate jobs.

A: And Olive?

B: Olive is helping move chairs into the hall. The signs are already painted, so there is no need for that job now.

A: Excellent. We can ask the adults about washing cups later.

Do not wait at the side door, even if you see people entering there. There are eighteen places in our group. We asked for twenty, but the studio room cannot hold that many visitors comfortably. Please bring a notebook so you can record ideas for our school project. Cameras are not needed, and phones must stay silent during recordings. We will leave school after the morning break and return before the final lesson. If you have a question for a presenter, write it down before the visit so you do not forget it.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: I hear you are camping next month, Leo. Have you bought a tent?

B: Not yet. My neighbour is lending me hers, which saves a lot of money. I am going with the youth group for two nights.

A: Will you stay by the sea?

B: We wanted to, but the campsite there was full. We are staying on a farm instead. There is a lake nearby, though swimming is not allowed.

A: What do you need to take?

B: We are sharing cooking equipment. I will take a pan, and someone else has a cooker. I must buy a sleeping bag because the one I tried was too short.

A: Are you worried about anything?

B: I thought sleeping outside would bother me. Actually, I am more worried about putting up the tent if it rains. We are practising that in the garden on Sunday.

A: What are you looking forward to?

B: Cooking with everyone in the evening. We do that at the youth club, but outside it should feel different.

A: Tell me how it goes, Leo.

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: Did everyone enjoy their day trips?

B: Yes. Noah took the train to a small town. The family thought of driving, but parking there was difficult.

A: And Olive?

B: Olive cycled with a cousin. The route followed the river, so they did not have to use busy roads.

A: I remember Peter wanted to visit an island.

B: That happened. Peter went by boat. The crossing was calm, and there was time to sit outside.

A: How did Rose travel?

B: By bus with a youth group. There were too many people for the leader's car, and the bus stopped right outside the place they wanted.

A: What about Sam?

B: Sam walked from home to a nature reserve. It was nearer than expected, so there was no reason to use any vehicle.

A: Nobody used the new tram, then?

B: Not on these trips. Perhaps they will try it another weekend. I am glad they all found a way that suited their plans.

Mock 03 | Listening Part 2

N: Part two. You will hear an announcement about a beginner's sailing course. Read questions six to ten now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: Thank you for asking about our sailing course. The beginner group meets on Sunday mornings. Saturday sessions are only for people who have already completed the first course. Your instructor is Ms Foster. Her surname is spelt F, O, S, T, E, R. She will explain the safety rules before anyone goes near a boat. You must be at least thirteen to join this group; younger children can ask about our summer sessions. We provide the safety equipment, but please bring a towel because you may get wet. Wear comfortable clothes and shoes that stay on your feet. Meet beside the cafe at the lake, rather than at the car park. The instructor will take everyone to the boats together. The course begins at nine thirty, and each lesson lasts two hours. Parents can watch from the shore, but they should not walk onto the wooden area where the boats are kept. We look forward to seeing you.

Mock 03 | Listening Part 3

N: Part three. You will hear two friends talking about a weekend job at a cafe. Read questions eleven to fifteen now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: How is your new cafe job, Olive?

B: Good, thanks, Peter. I work on Saturday mornings. I wanted a Sunday shift, but that was already taken.

A: Do you make the drinks?

B: Not yet. I clear tables and carry clean cups to the counter. Next month I may learn to use the coffee machine.

A: Was your first day difficult?

B: Remembering where everything belonged was hard. The owner gave me a tour, but I could not remember it all. Another worker drew a simple plan of the cupboards for me. That helped much more.

A: Do you enjoy it?

B: Yes. I like talking to customers, especially the regular ones. It is tiring when the cafe is full, but the time passes quickly.

A: What will you do with the money?

B: I first thought of buying a phone. Mine is still fine, though, so I am saving for a school trip instead.

A: Will you work during the holidays?

B: Only one extra morning a week. The owner offered me more, but I want time for homework and my friends too.

[PAUSE 25 seconds]

N: Question sixteen. You will hear a guide speaking to a group. What must the group do?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: You may look around this room by yourselves for ten minutes. Please leave the objects where they are, even if you want a closer view. There are photographs in the leaflet showing the smaller details. We will meet beside the staircase afterwards.

[PAUSE 10 seconds]

N: Question seventeen. You will hear a girl describing a journey. What surprised her?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: I expected the long bus journey to feel boring, so I brought lots of games. In fact, the views changed all the time and another passenger told us about the villages. I hardly opened my bag. The time passed quickly.

N: Question eighteen. You will hear a coach talking to players. What is his advice?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: We have practised enough for today. Trying again when you are very tired will not help much. Have some water and rest. Tomorrow we will work on the parts that caused difficulty, but tonight you should give your body a break.

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

N: Question twenty. You will hear two friends discussing a concert. What did the boy like most?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: The singer was good, but the best thing was hearing the audience join in. I had only listened to the songs alone before. Being in a room full of people who knew every word made it special. I did not mind standing.

Mock 03 | Listening Part 5

N: Part five. You will hear two people talking about activities chosen for an evening course. Read questions twenty-one to twenty-five now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: Which evening courses did our friends choose?

B: Rose chose sewing. At first it was going to be drawing, but being able to repair clothes seemed more useful.

A: That makes sense. What did Sam decide?

B: Drama. The singing course was tempting, but Sam wanted to try speaking in front of people without having to sing.

A: And Tara?

B: Woodwork. Tara wants to make a small shelf and learn to use simple tools safely.

A: I thought Victor liked computers.

B: Still does, but after sitting at a computer all day, cooking felt like a better evening activity. Victor wants to prepare a few good meals.

A: Has Alice chosen anything?

B: Photography. The course includes walks outside, not just looking at a screen, which Alice liked.

A: They have all picked different things.

B: Yes. We can ask them to show us what they learn at the end of the month.

[PAUSE 15 seconds]

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Shall I bring scissors for the poster?

B: We have some, and there are paintbrushes in the cupboard.

A: Is your dad collecting you in the car?

B: He cannot today. I was going to cycle, but my bicycle is at home.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Would you like an orange?

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Did you get a skateboard for your birthday?

B: No, I am still using my brother's.

A: Then is that a football in the bag?

B: It is my new tennis racket. I am starting lessons next week.

A: Perhaps we can play together when you have learnt a little.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Shall we go straight to the library?

B: I have to visit my grandfather at the hospital first.

A: Will you still have time for the film?

B: Yes. Visiting finishes at three, and the cinema is close by. I can meet you there after the library closes.

Mock 04 | Listening Part 2

N: Part two. You will hear an announcement about a school garden workshop. Read questions six to ten now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: Good morning. There is a change to the school garden workshop. It will happen on Wednesday, not Monday, because the plants will not arrive until Tuesday afternoon. Our leader is Mrs Hughes. That is H, U, G, H, E, S. She helps community groups plan small gardens. We have twenty-four plants to put in the ground. There will be enough for everyone to work in pairs. We can lend you small tools, but please bring some gloves to protect your hands. The workshop starts straight after the last lesson and will finish at four o'clock. You do not need to stay later to clear up; that job is included in the session. If it rains lightly, we will continue outside, so a coat is sensible. If the weather is very bad, meet in the science room instead. Please bring water to drink and leave your school bags indoors before joining us.

Mock 04 | Listening Part 3

N: Part three. You will hear two friends talking about a youth orchestra. Read questions eleven to fifteen now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: You have joined the orchestra, Rose. Is it only for your school?

B: No, Sam. Students come from several schools. My music teacher told me about it, and I went to hear a rehearsal before joining.

A: How often do you practise?

B: Together on Wednesday evenings. I practise alone at home on other days, but not for hours. A short session every day works better for me.

A: What was hardest at first?

B: Listening to the other players while following my own music. I could play my part alone, but playing together was very different.

A: Have you given a concert yet?

B: Yes, in a small hall. We were going to play outside, but heavy rain changed the plan. The hall sounded better than I expected.

A: Were you nervous?

B: Before the first piece, yes. Once we began, I concentrated on the music. Afterwards, I was pleased that we had stayed together even when one player made a mistake.

A: What happens next?

B: We are choosing some film music for a concert in spring. I want to help with the programme notes as well as play.

N: Question seventeen. You will hear a girl talking about a recipe. Why will she try it again?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

Mock 04 | Listening Part 5

N: Part five. You will hear two people talking about items borrowed for a class display. Read questions twenty-one to twenty-five now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: We need to check what everyone is lending for the display.

B: Victor is bringing a map. It shows how the town looked many years ago, so it will go beside the old photographs.

A: Is Alice bringing a camera?

B: No, a radio. It belonged to a grandparent and is much larger than modern ones.

A: What did Ben offer?

B: A plant from home. We need something living for the section about looking after the environment.

A: And Daisy?

B: A suitcase. We can put travel labels on it and show what people might pack.

A: What about Evan's model?

B: The model boat will be there. Evan repaired it last week, so it is ready to put on the table.

A: Do we still need a torch and a blanket?

B: Not for this version of the display. We changed that section because there was not enough space. I will remind everyone to label anything they lend.

All the climbing equipment is included, and there is nothing extra to hire. Bring a bottle for water; you can fill it inside the centre. Wear clothes that let you move easily. When you arrive, use the green entrance. The blue door leads to the gym and will not be open to our group. Parents can sit upstairs if they want to watch. Please tell the coach if you feel worried about heights. You can begin low down and stop whenever you need a break.

A: Here are the details for the indoor climbing session. We will go on Friday evening. The centre is fully booked on Saturday, so please check that Friday suits you before paying. The coach is Mr Morgan, spelt M, O, R, G, A, N. He will work with our group throughout the session. An adult ticket normally costs fourteen pounds, but students in our group pay nine pounds. All the climbing equipment is included, and there is nothing extra to hire. Bring a bottle for water; you can fill it inside the centre. Wear clothes that let you move easily. When you arrive, use the green entrance. The blue door leads to the gym and will not be open to our group. Parents can sit upstairs if they want to watch. Please tell the coach if you feel worried about heights. You can begin low down and stop whenever you need a break.

Mock 05 | Listening Part 3

N: Part three. You will hear two friends talking about a photography exhibition. Read questions eleven to fifteen now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: Are you putting a picture in the youth exhibition, Victor?

B: Yes, Alice. I nearly chose a mountain photo, but the theme is everyday life, so I am using one of my grandfather repairing a chair.

A: Did you take it with a special camera?

B: No, with my phone. The teacher said the idea and the light mattered more than expensive equipment.

A: Do you have to print it yourself?

B: The centre will print the final pictures. We only need to send a file and a short description by Friday. The exhibition opens two weeks later.

A: What was difficult about choosing?

B: I had several nice pictures, but some did not tell the viewer much. My sister helped me pick one that showed a real moment.

A: Is there a prize?

B: There is a camera for the winner, but I am more interested in hearing what visitors think. I have never shown my work publicly before.

A: Shall I come on opening day?

B: Please do. I will be there in the afternoon, helping people find the student displays.

Mock 05 | Listening Part 4

N: Part four. For questions sixteen to twenty, choose the correct answer. You will hear each short recording twice.

[PAUSE 25 seconds]

N: Question sixteen. You will hear a teenager talking about an interview. What did she learn?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: I prepared lots of questions, but the most interesting answer came when I asked about something the person had just mentioned. Next time I will still prepare, but I will listen more carefully instead of worrying about the next line on my page.

N: Question seventeen. You will hear a phone message about a parcel. What should the listener do?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: We tried to deliver your parcel, but nobody answered. It is now at the local collection point. Please bring some identification when you collect it. There is no extra delivery charge to pay, and we will keep it for a week.

N: Question eighteen. You will hear a teacher talking about group work. What is her main point?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: Do not give every job to the person who works fastest. Everyone needs a chance to practise. You can help each other, but each member should be responsible for something. We will discuss how you worked together as well as the finished poster.

N: Question nineteen. You will hear two friends talking about shopping. What does the girl prefer?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: Ordering online is quick, but I like trying shoes on before buying them. Returning a pair that does not fit can take longer than visiting a shop. For books, online shopping is fine. Shoes are different for me.

Mock 05 | Listening Part 5

N: Part five. You will hear two people talking about places friends chose for a family outing. Read questions twenty-one to twenty-five now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: Where did everyone decide to go with their families?

B: Ben chose a farm. There was a chance to help feed animals, rather than only watch them.

A: What about Daisy?

B: A museum with an exhibition about old transport. The theme park was too expensive for the whole family.

A: Did Evan go to the zoo?

B: No, to the aquarium. The family wanted somewhere indoors because rain was expected.

A: And Faye?

B: Faye chose the gardens outside town. A younger brother could play while the adults looked at the flowers, so it suited everyone.

A: That leaves Holly.

B: Holly went to the castle. The family had a picnic nearby afterwards, although they did not go as far as the beach.

A: It sounds as if everyone found something different.

B: Yes, and they all checked opening times before setting off. Nobody wanted to travel a long way and find the place closed.

[PAUSE 30 seconds]

N: Question one. Which fruit will the girl buy?

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: We need oranges for juice.

B: Dad has already bought some. I am getting apples for my lunchbox.

A: The strawberries look nice.

B: They do, but they will be difficult to carry on my bicycle. The apples can go in my bag without getting damaged.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Is the castle open today?

B: Yes, but I visited it last week.

A: We could see the new display at the museum.

B: I have booked a cinema ticket already. There is a film about a mountain rescue.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Are those your new trainers?

B: Yes, I will wear them, but the thing in my bag is a football.

A: I thought the club was for skateboarding.

B: It used to be. Now it offers different sports. Today we are practising passing and scoring goals on the small pitch.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Have you got your ruler for homework?

B: Yes, it is here beside the paintbrush.

A: Then why can you not start?

B: I left my pencil at school. I need to draw the picture before painting it.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Is there enough soup for tonight?

B: We had the last of it at lunch.

A: We could make a salad.

B: Dad has put a pizza in the oven, so we can have that. The salad vegetables will keep until tomorrow.

A: Good. I am quite hungry.

Mock 06 | Listening Part 2

N: Part two. You will hear an announcement about a book illustration class. Read questions six to ten now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: This is a reminder about the book illustration class. It is on Tuesday after school. The old notice said Monday, but please ignore that. Our tutor is Ms Reeves. Her surname is R, E, E, V, E, S. She draws pictures for children's stories and will show us how to plan a character. Bring a pencil that is comfortable to hold. We will provide paper and coloured materials, so do not bring a large painting bag. There will be sixteen students in the class. This is smaller than the usual group because everyone needs space to draw. The class is in the Oak room. Oak is spelt O, A, K. It is on the ground floor, opposite the small kitchen. We begin at half past three. You can have a snack beforehand, but please keep food off the drawing tables. At the end, you may take your work home or leave it on the display shelf.

N: Part three. You will hear two friends talking about a bread-making course. Read questions eleven to fifteen now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: Did you enjoy the bread course, Daisy?

B: Very much. My older brother booked it for my birthday. I had asked for a recipe book, but this was a much better present.

A: Was the class large?

B: There were only eight of us, so the teacher could watch everyone. We worked in pairs, though each person made a loaf to take home.

A: What did you find difficult?

B: Knowing when to stop adding flour. At home I used to add too much because the mixture felt sticky. The teacher showed me that it changed as you worked it.

A: Did your bread turn out well?

B: It tasted good, but its shape was funny. The teacher said that did not matter. I was pleased I had made it myself.

A: Will you bake again?

B: This Sunday. I am making bread for lunch with my grandparents. I will follow the same simple recipe rather than try a more difficult one.

A: Can I see the recipe, Daisy?

B: Of course, Evan. I can send it to you tonight, but you should come round sometime and we can practise together.

[PAUSE 25 seconds]

N: Question sixteen. You will hear a boy describing a talk. What did he like?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: The speaker did not just tell us facts. She brought objects we could examine and asked what we noticed. That made the subject easier to understand. I remembered more afterwards than I usually do when I only listen to someone speak.

N: Question seventeen. You will hear a message about a bicycle. Why is the speaker calling?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: Your bicycle is ready. We replaced the cable, but the tyres were fine, so the bill is lower than we first thought. You can collect it tomorrow morning. Please phone if you need us to keep it for longer.

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: Choose a book you think you will enjoy, not simply the one with the most pages. You can change it if it is too difficult. The aim this month is to read regularly and talk about what you notice, not to finish first.

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

N: Part five. You will hear two people talking about things friends made as gifts. Read questions twenty-one to twenty-five now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: What did our friends make for the gift exchange?

B: Faye made a wooden box. It is small, with a lid that slides, and took several afternoons to finish.

A: I saw George carrying some cloth.

B: That became a bag. George had thought of a scarf, but there was enough strong cloth for a shopping bag instead.

A: What about Holly?

B: A photo album, with pictures from the school year. The cover is handmade too.

A: Did Isaac bake something?

B: No, Isaac made a scarf. It took a long time, but the evenings were cold, so it was a useful present.

A: And Jade?

B: A card. It opens into a little paper garden. Jade wanted to make a model car at first but could not finish it in time.

A: There were no cakes, then?

B: Not in this exchange. We wanted gifts people could keep, though someone suggested having food at the celebration afterwards.

B: I stopped last year. I play the keyboard now.

N: Part two. You will hear an announcement about a mountain rescue talk. Read questions six to ten now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: We have invited a mountain rescue worker to talk to our youth group. The talk will be on Monday. We chose that day because the speaker is working during the rest of the week. Her name is Ms Carter. Please spell the surname C, A, R, T, E, R. She will explain what happens when someone needs help on a mountain. The talk lasts forty-five minutes, including time for questions. It is not the full hour printed on the first poster. Please bring a question you would like to ask. You do not need any special equipment or outdoor clothes for this meeting. We will meet in room seven at the community centre. Room six is being painted, so we cannot use our usual place. The talk starts at six thirty. Parents are welcome, but please let the organiser know if they are coming, as the number of seats is limited. There will be water available at the back of the room.

Mock 07 | Listening Part 3

N: Part three. You will hear two friends talking about a drama workshop. Read questions eleven to fifteen now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: I thought you disliked drama, George. Why did you try the workshop?

B: I did not dislike it, Holly. I was worried about speaking in front of people. My friend said the workshop might help.

A: Did you have to learn a long speech?

B: No. We began with simple movement games. Then we made short scenes in groups without writing every word first.

A: Was that easier?

B: In some ways. The hardest part was accepting another person's idea when it was different from mine. The teacher said a scene works better if people build on each other's suggestions.

A: Did you perform for families at the end?

B: We planned to, but there was not enough time. We showed our scenes to the other groups instead, which was useful because they understood the exercise.

A: Would you recommend it?

B: Yes, especially to someone who thinks they are not an actor. I still do not want a big stage role, but I feel more comfortable speaking in class.

A: Is there another workshop soon?

B: Next month. I have not booked yet because I need to check my school calendar first.

[PAUSE 18 seconds]

N: That is the end of part three.

[PAUSE 10 seconds]

Mock 07 | Listening Part 4

N: Part four. For questions sixteen to twenty, choose the correct answer. You will hear each short recording twice.

[PAUSE 25 seconds]

N: Question sixteen. You will hear a teacher discussing an essay. What is the advice?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: Your examples are interesting, but the reader needs to know your main idea earlier. Try moving the final sentence to the beginning, then check that the other paragraphs support it. You do not need to make the essay much longer.

[PAUSE 6 seconds]

N: Now listen again.

[PAUSE 2 seconds]

[PAUSE 10 seconds]

N: Question seventeen. You will hear two friends talking about a walk. Why did they enjoy it?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: We did not reach the top, but that did not spoil the day.

B: I agree. We found a lovely place to stop and watched the clouds move over the valley.

A: Going more slowly meant we noticed things.

B: We can try the longer route another time.

[PAUSE 6 seconds]

N: Now listen again.

[PAUSE 10 seconds]

N: Question eighteen. You will hear a message from a club organiser. What is the request?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: Please let me know by this evening if you are coming on the trip. I need the final number before booking the minibus. You do not need to pay until next week, but I must know how many seats we need now.

[PAUSE 6 seconds]

[PAUSE 10 seconds]

N: Question nineteen. You will hear a shopkeeper speaking to a customer. What is she offering?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: We do not have that size here, but another branch does. I can ask them to send it, which takes two days, or they can keep it for you to collect today. The price will be the same either way.

[PAUSE 6 seconds]

N: Now listen again.

[PAUSE 10 seconds]

N: Question twenty. You will hear a girl describing volunteering. What surprised her?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: I thought I would spend the whole morning doing practical jobs. I did some, but most people wanted to talk. Listening carefully was more useful than rushing to find another task. I had not expected conversation to be such an important part of helping.

[PAUSE 6 seconds]

Mock 07 | Listening Part 5

N: Part five. You will hear two people talking about reasons friends joined a club. Read questions twenty-one to twenty-five now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: Why did everyone join their new clubs?

B: Isaac had just moved to the area and wanted to make friends. The activity itself was less important than meeting people.

A: And Jade?

B: Jade joined a repair club to learn a practical skill. Being able to mend simple things seemed useful.

A: I know Karl spends a lot of time studying.

B: Exactly. Karl wanted to be more active, so a walking group was a good choice. There was no interest in competitions.

A: What about Lily?

B: A family holiday involves speaking another language, and Lily wanted to prepare. The club offers relaxed conversation practice.

A: Why did Max choose the art club?

B: Max received a set of paints as a gift and wanted to use them properly.

A: Nobody joined just to earn money?

B: No. They were all looking for something enjoyable or useful outside lessons. We will ask next month whether the clubs met their expectations.

[PAUSE 15 seconds]

N: Now listen again.

N: Question one. What will the girl eat after the lesson?

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Are you coming for pancakes after class?

B: I have brought a sandwich because I need to leave quickly.

A: The cafe also does salad to take away.

B: Thanks, but I have already made my food. I will eat the sandwich on the bench before catching the bus.

A: See you tomorrow.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Did you leave the bag at the library?

B: I had it when we left there.

A: Perhaps it is at the hospital where we visited Auntie.

B: No, I remember putting it beside the bench at the museum afterwards. I will phone their desk now.

A: Good idea.

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

N: Question four. Which item is for the boy's sister?

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: I have bought a ruler for myself.

B: What about your sister's present?

A: These scissors. She makes things from paper, and her old ones do not cut well.

B: Does she need glue too?

A: She has plenty. I will wrap the scissors when we get home.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: If you would like to try our new dance class, come on Saturday. The Sunday class is for adults, but Saturday is suitable for beginners aged twelve and above. Your teacher is Ms Dixon. That is D, I, X, O, N. She will teach a short routine and help you practise it in small groups. The class starts at eleven o'clock, not ten as first advertised. It lasts one hour. Please bring a towel. Water is provided. You will be moving a lot, so choose light, comfortable clothes. We have clean indoor shoes to borrow if you have not got any. Use studio three, on the first floor. There is a lift beside reception if you need it. You do not need to book a whole course to try this session. Pay for the single class at the desk when you arrive, and decide afterwards whether you would like to return.

Mock 08 | Listening Part 3

N: Part three. You will hear two friends talking about a volunteering morning. Read questions eleven to fifteen now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: How was the volunteer morning, Jade?

B: Busy, Karl. We helped at a community meal. I expected to cook, but the kitchen already had enough adults, so I showed guests to tables.

A: Did you need any training?

B: We met early for instructions. The organiser explained that some guests could not walk far, so we should ask where they wanted to sit rather than choose for them.

A: Was anything difficult?

B: The hall became noisy. I sometimes could not hear what people said, so I learnt to ask politely instead of guessing.

A: Did you stay for the whole event?

B: Yes, including clearing up. That took longer than I expected, but everyone helped. We finished about half an hour later than the plan.

A: Will you do it again?

B: I have offered to help once a month. I liked talking to people of different ages. Some had interesting stories about the neighbourhood.

A: Could I come too?

B: Ask the organiser first. She needs to know how many helpers are coming so there is a useful job for everyone.

[PAUSE 25 seconds]

N: Question sixteen. You will hear a teacher introducing an activity. What should students focus on?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: You will have ten minutes to plan, then your team will build a model. It does not need to look beautiful. We are interested in whether it stands up and whether you can explain your choices. Test it as you work, rather than waiting until the end.

[PAUSE 6 seconds]

N: Now listen again.

[PAUSE 10 seconds]

N: Question seventeen. You will hear two friends talking about travel. Why does the boy prefer the train?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: The coach costs less.

B: True, but I can walk around on the train and read more comfortably. I do not mind paying a little extra for a long journey.

A: It is not much faster.

B: Speed is not the main reason for me.

[PAUSE 10 seconds]

N: Question eighteen. You will hear a message from a neighbour. What is needed?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: Could you bring my empty recycling box inside after collection? I will not be home until late, and the wind may blow it down the road. There is no need to take out any more rubbish; I have already done that.

[PAUSE 6 seconds]

[PAUSE 10 seconds]

N: Question nineteen. You will hear a boy discussing a course. What is his opinion?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: I expected to learn everything in one day, which was not realistic. The course gave me a good start and showed me how to practise safely at home. I still make mistakes, but now I know what to work on. That was worth the price.

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

Mock 08 | Listening Part 5

N: Part five. You will hear two people talking about tasks friends found most difficult in a project. Read questions twenty-one to twenty-five now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: What did the group say about their projects?

B: Lily found choosing reliable facts hardest. There was plenty online, but not all of it agreed.

A: What about Max?

B: Speaking to the audience. The research was enjoyable, but standing up in front of everyone was worrying. Practice with a small group helped.

A: Did Nina have computer problems?

B: No. Working with a partner was harder. They both had strong ideas and needed time to agree.

A: And Oscar?

B: Organising notes. Oscar had collected useful information but could not find it quickly. Putting it under headings solved the problem.

A: That leaves Penny.

B: Choosing a topic. Once that decision was made, the rest went quite smoothly.

A: So the deadline was not the main problem for any of them?

B: No. They all finished on time. The teacher said explaining what was difficult would help them plan their next projects better.

[PAUSE 15 seconds]

N: Now listen again.

[PAUSE 30 seconds]

N: Question one. How will the girl cross the lake?

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Can we cycle all the way around the lake?

B: That takes too long. There is a boat across it.

B: Only by the long road. Let us take the boat, then walk to the village.

A: We should check the departure time.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: There is soup and a sandwich in the fridge.

B: I made myself a salad this morning.

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

N: Question three. Which instrument does the girl need?

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Have you brought your violin?

B: I have, but I do not need it today. I am playing the flute in this piece.

A: There is a guitar beside the stage.

B: That belongs to the teacher. I need to collect my flute from the cupboard before the others arrive.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Your boots look uncomfortable for dancing.

B: They are. I need trainers before the next class.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Is that your brother's backpack?

B: No, the bag is mine. He has lent me his camera for the school trip.

A: I thought you wanted his headphones.

B: I have repaired my own, so I did not need those. I will return the camera on Friday.

A: Take care of it.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

Mock 09 | Listening Part 2

N: Part two. You will hear an announcement about a computer animation club. Read questions six to ten now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: Our computer animation club has a few places left. We meet on Thursday afternoons, rather than Wednesday, because the computer room is used for another class then. The tutor is Mr Walsh. His surname is W, A, L, S, H. He will help you make a short film using simple drawings. Students must be twelve or older to join. You do not need previous experience, but you should be ready to try things and ask questions. Bring some headphones so you can hear the sound in your own film without disturbing other students. The school computers have everything else you need. Meet in room fifteen. Please do not go to room fifty in the other building; some people read the first notice too quickly. The club begins at four and finishes at five fifteen. You can save your project at the end and continue working on it the following week.

N: Part three. You will hear two friends talking about an outdoor film evening. Read questions eleven to fifteen now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: Are you going to the outdoor film, Max?

B: Yes, Nina. I bought a ticket yesterday. Students get a lower price if they book before the day.

A: Is it in the town square again?

B: They have moved it to the college garden. The screen is larger there, and it is further from the busy road.

A: What should we bring?

B: A warm jacket. They provide chairs, but it can get cold after sunset. Food is available, although I am taking sandwiches to save money.

A: What if it rains?

B: The organisers will email by four if they have to cancel. They will show the film indoors the following week, using the same tickets.

A: What are you most looking forward to?

B: Watching with lots of people. I have seen the film at home, but the atmosphere should make it different.

A: Can we meet near the entrance?

B: Let us keep the extra details for questions afterwards.

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: I did not get a prize, but the judge wrote useful comments about my story. She noticed a strong idea I had not thought about much. Now I want to develop it in another piece of writing. Entering helped me see what to try next.

N: Question twenty. You will hear a father talking about plans. What is he suggesting?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: The weather may be too wet for the picnic, but let us wait until tomorrow morning before deciding. We can use the community room if necessary. I do not think we should cancel seeing everyone just because the outdoor plan might change.

[PAUSE 6 seconds]

N: Now listen again.

Mock 09 | Listening Part 5

N: Part five. You will hear two people talking about things friends enjoyed most about a visit. Read questions twenty-one to twenty-five now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: What did everyone enjoy most on the visit?

B: Oscar liked the guide best. The stories made the place feel real, not just like a collection of old objects.

A: Did Penny like the shop?

B: The view from the top was more memorable. Penny spent ages looking across the valley and hardly went into the shop.

A: What about Quinn?

B: The hands-on activity. Being allowed to make something helped Quinn understand how people had worked.

A: And Ruth?

B: The building itself. Ruth kept looking at the stairs, windows and roof, and drew a few details in a notebook.

A: What did Simon choose?

B: The journey. The coach went through several small villages, and the scenery kept changing.

A: Interesting. I expected someone to mention the food.

B: They said lunch was fine, but other things were more special. We should remember their comments when planning the next visit.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Your aunt said she would be outside the cinema.

B: She has changed the plan. She is returning books to the library first.

A: What about the visit to the castle?

B: That is later. I will meet her on the library steps, and we will go together from there.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: There are strawberries for the trip.

B: They might get soft in my bag. I will take bananas.

A: Would you rather have pears?

B: The bananas are ready to eat, and I only need two. You can leave the pears at home for tomorrow.

A: Put them on top of your lunch.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Have you painted the model yet?

B: Not yet. I have a pencil and paintbrush ready, but one piece has come off.

A: You need glue before you can finish.

B: Yes. Could I use yours? I will put the piece back, wait for it to dry, then paint it.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Will you need the umbrella at the beach?

B: The rain has stopped, and the afternoon should be sunny.

A: I have a scarf if you get cold.

B: Thanks, but I need my sunhat more. It is in the car. I will collect it before we leave.

A: I will wait here.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

A: Have you booked a train ticket for the concert?

B: The last train home leaves too early.

A: Could your parents drive?

B: They are both busy. I am taking the special bus from the town square. It waits until the concert finishes.

A: That sounds much better.

[PAUSE 5 seconds]

N: Now listen again.

Mock 10 | Listening Part 2

N: Part two. You will hear an announcement about a first-aid introduction. Read questions six to ten now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: This message is about the first-aid introduction for young people. It will take place on Sunday morning. The Saturday course is now full, so please come on the correct day. The trainer is Ms Evans. That is E, V, A, N, S. She will explain simple ways to get help and keep yourself safe while waiting for an adult or emergency worker. The session lasts ninety minutes. There will be a short break in the middle, so it is not ninety minutes of sitting and listening. Bring a notebook for important information. You will not need to bring any medical equipment. Meet in the hall at the youth centre. The small classroom shown on the old leaflet is being used for an exam. Please arrive ten minutes before the session begins at ten. We will work in pairs for some activities. If you have any questions about taking part, speak to the trainer before we start.

Mock 10 | Listening Part 3

N: Part three. You will hear two friends talking about learning to swim better. Read questions eleven to fifteen now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: You already swim, Penny. Why are you taking lessons?

B: I can swim across the pool, Quinn, but I get tired quickly. I want to improve how I move, not just go faster.

A: Are the lessons at your usual pool?

B: No. The small pool near the station has a class before school. It is quieter than the big sports centre.

A: Does getting up early bother you?

B: A little, but I prepare my bag the night before. The difficult thing is remembering to breathe at the right moment. The coach gives us one thing to practise at a time.

A: Have you noticed a change?

B: Yes. I can swim for longer without stopping. I am not much faster yet, but that is not my main aim.

A: Will you enter a race?

B: Not this term. I want to finish the course first. My family is going on a beach holiday later, and I hope I will feel more confident in the water.

A: Perhaps I should try the class.

B: Speak to the coach. There are different groups depending on what you can already do.

Mock 10 | Listening Part 4

N: Part four. For questions sixteen to twenty, choose the correct answer. You will hear each short recording twice.

[PAUSE 25 seconds]

N: Question sixteen. You will hear a teacher talking about revision. What is the advice?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: Reading the same page for an hour can feel like hard work without helping much. Close the book and try explaining the idea to someone. Then check what you missed. This shows you which parts you understand and which need more attention.

[PAUSE 6 seconds]

N: Now listen again.

[PAUSE 10 seconds]

N: Question seventeen. You will hear two friends discussing a purchase. Why will the girl wait?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: The camera is cheaper today.

B: I know, but I have not checked whether it does what I need. A low price is not enough if it is the wrong model.

A: The offer may end.

B: I would rather miss a discount than buy something unsuitable.

[PAUSE 10 seconds]

N: Question eighteen. You will hear a phone message from a school office. What should the parent do?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: We have found a coat that may belong to your child. Please ask them to describe the colour and anything in the pockets before coming to the office. Several similar coats were left after the event, and we want to return each one correctly.

[PAUSE 10 seconds]

N: Question nineteen. You will hear a student talking about group work. What changed?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: At first I thought a good leader had to make every decision. Our project improved when I began asking other people what they thought. We still needed someone to keep track of time, but everyone had ideas worth hearing.

[PAUSE 6 seconds]

N: Question twenty. You will hear an announcement at a station. What is the main message?

[PAUSE 8 seconds]

A: The next train is expected in ten minutes. Please spread out along the platform rather than waiting only beside the stairs. This will help everyone board more easily. Keep behind the safety line while you are waiting.

Mock 10 | Listening Part 5

N: Part five. You will hear two people talking about ways friends keep track of plans. Read questions twenty-one to twenty-five now.

[PAUSE 40 seconds]

A: How do our friends remember their plans?

B: Ruth carries a small notebook. Writing things by hand seems to help, and it does not need charging.

A: What about Simon?

B: A phone app. It gives a warning before each activity, which is useful when the day is busy.

A: Does Tessa use a phone too?

B: No, a wall calendar above the desk. Tessa likes seeing the whole month at once.

A: And Will?

B: A small whiteboard. Plans often change, so it is easy to rub things out and write them again.

A: What does Amy do?

B: Puts a list on the fridge. Everyone at home passes it, and another family member can add a note if necessary.

A: Do any of them depend only on a friend's reminders?

B: No. They said friends can help, but each person needs their own way of keeping track. I might try one of their ideas myself.
